

Hilda

Stauch, 86

7-9-93

Mrs. Hilda E. Stauch, 86, Groton, died at Colonial Manor, Groton, Tuesday, July 6, 1993. The funeral was held at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, Friday, July 9, 1993, with the Rev. Anne Maldoon officiating. Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

Hilda Ella Zaske was born May 17, 1907 at Olivet, Minn., to Frederick and Martha (Schmidt) Zaske. Her father died in 1919 and in 1921, the family moved to Ipswich, where she received her schooling. She was confirmed at the Ipswich Lutheran Church. As a young woman she lived in Aberdeen, where she was employed.

She married Elmer Stauch, March 19, 1936 in Aberdeen. They farmed in the Groton area until Elmer's death in 1976, when she moved into Groton. She was a member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, and the Groton Senior Citizens. The last few years she was a resident of Colonial Manor, Groton.

She is survived by two sons, Leland Stauch, Columbia Heights, Minn., and Edward Stauch, Groton; one daughter, Mrs. Gayle (Elizabeth) Trehus, Litchfield, Minn.; one sister, Mrs. Joe (Laura) Ackerman, Stillwater, Minn.; 10 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, four sisters and six brothers.

Casketbearers were Don Helgeson, Merle Harder, Art Lange, Dennis K. Larson, Eddie Nehls and Tom Woods.

Organist was Arlis Doeden, and the soloist was Gene Brolin. The usher was Greg Clocksene.